Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

2128 Old Edgewood Road (the Harford Food Bank) is a c. 1930 concrete block warehouse building. Its utilitarian design exhibits little architectural elaboration.

The Harford Food Bank, which is located on a large open lot on the northwest side of Old Edgewood Road across from the Edgewood Station parking lot, consists of a single story, front gabled and shed roofed, rectangular block. A shed roofed, freezer enclosure has been appended to the north end of the west wall. A pent, shingled, flat parapet has been appended to the facade wall of the building. This warehouse is set on a concrete slab, has walls constructed of rusticated concrete blocks, and has a roof sheathed in corrugated metal.

Large rectangular window openings were placed on the facade of the building. All of these have been enclosed. A metal door with a single square light in its upper section is placed near the center of the south facade and is reached by a concrete handicapped ramp with metal railing. The sides and rear of the building were originally fenestrated with tall, double hung, sash windows. These windows had smooth-faced concrete lintels. These window openings have been enclosed with wood panels and bricks. A single window is present near the front of the east wall, and two-leaf metal doors are placed near the center of the east wall.

Prepare both a summary paragraph of significance and a general statement of history and support.

A typical vernacular, small warehouse building, the use of rusticated concrete blocks suggests that it was constructed at about the same time as the old Edgewood Post Office, a building erected in the 1930s. Never notable for its architecture, its original appearance has been substantially changed by addition of the front pent roof, enclosure of windows, and construction of the freezer addition. Due to lack of historic and architectural significance, as well as loss of integrity, the building is recommended not eligible for the National Register.

Through much of its history, it shared its chain of title with the adjacent 2120 Old Edgewood Road. In 1982, Raymond L. and Alice F. Slesinki sold the land containing the warehouse to George Steven Miholis for $35,000 (Harford County Deed Book 1178:517, December 20, 1982). Three years later, Miholis sold the property, described as Lot 3 of the Slesinski subdivision to Old Edgewood Road Associates (Harford Food Bank 1287:798, September 17, 1985). In 1989, Old Edgewood Road Associates sold the parcel, which totaled .707 acres to the Harford Food Bank, its present owner, for $119,100 (Harford County Deed Book 1557:344, June 21, 1989).
